Heat Format, Rules & scoring

Pre-prepared notes are not permitted. Participants are allowed to have blank scrap paper on which to make notes and copies of the cases. No pre-prepared notes are permitted.

Each breakout room will have two teams and a moderator/judge. After brief introductions, the moderator will toss a coin to determine which is team A and which is team B. The case will then be announced, and the question will be read out. Participants will then be invited to have a two-minute team meeting. With their microphone off you have two minutes to discuss and plan your response to the question. Team A then has up to five minutes to present their case. (Only one person can speak at a time) A one-minute conference will then be provided for Team B before they offer their critique. Team A will then have a 1-minute meeting to prepare their response to the critique. Another three-minute period is provided for Team A to respond. Following this the judge (s) will have up to seven minute Q & A with Team A. (Students can ask to have a 30 second private conference before responding to their questions)

Once the judges have finished their Q & A the moderator will read out the next case, Team A swaps rolls with Team B and the same process is repeated as above.

Please remember to thank the judges/moderator at the end.

Teams will be made up of five students with a max of two teams from each University. The Olympians can be current undergraduate students from a tertiary institution in Australasia. Coaches are usually graduate students.

2025 Ethics Olympiad Scoring Criteria

The Ethics Olympiad scoring criteria should be used in conjunction with the score sheet. Please remember, teams are strongly encouraged to think of themselves as being on the same side rather than as opponents. That is, both teams are working together to solve a difficult problem—while impressing the judges with thoughtful analysis and support. Listening to the other team with an aim to affirm, supplement, or build on their argument is a prudent approach.

Part 1: PRESENTING Team's initial presentation (15 Points Total)

A) Did the presentation clearly and systematically address the moderator's question? (5 points)

- 5 = Extremely clear presentation that systematically addressed the key dimensions of the question.
- 4 = Reasonably clear presentation that systematically addressed most key dimensions of the question.
- 3 = Hard to follow the argument. Significant dimensions of the question missed (passable).
- 2 = Serious logical problems or underdeveloped argument (poor).
- 1 = Incoherent presentation.

B) Did the team clearly identify and thoroughly discuss the central moral dimensions of the case? (5 points)

- 5 = Clearly and precisely identified central moral dimensions, and discussed these dimensions thoroughly.
- 4 = Mostly identified central moral dimensions and discussed major issues.
- 3 = Adequately identified and discussed some central moral dimensions (passable).
- 2 = Misidentified some moral dimensions of the case and inadequately discussed (poor).
- 1 = Misidentified the central moral dimensions.

C) Did the team's presentation indicate both awareness and thoughtful consideration of different viewpoints, including especially those that would loom large in the reasoning of individuals who disagree with the team's position? (5 points)

- 5 = Insightful analysis and discussion of the most significant viewpoints, including full and careful attention to opposing points of view.
- 4 = Solid analysis and discussion of some different viewpoints.
- 3 = Underdeveloped discussion of different viewpoints (passable).
- 2 = Minimal consideration of different viewpoints (poor).
- 1 = Minimal awareness of different viewpoints.

Part 2: RESPONDING Team's Commentary on Opposing Team's Initial Presentation (10 Points)

Part 3: PRESENTING Team's Response to Opposing Team's commentary (15 Points)

- 3-1 = Failure to respond to commentary and judges

Overall: Points for engaging in Respectful Dialogue, as opposed to Combative Debate (5 Points)

Did the team demonstrate their awareness that an ethics bowl is about participating in a collaborative discussion aimed at earnestly thinking through difficult ethical issues?

- 5 = Respectfully engaged all parties in exceptionally productive and collaborative discussion.
- 4 = Respectfully engaged other team's arguments and points.
- 3 = Respectful of other team's argument but only marginal engagement and pursuit.
